Continuation Sheet (PTOL-303)

Continuation of 2. NOTE:

The claims are amended to limit the composition to a single layer of microspheres on a substrate. The claims were not previously defined as such. Therefore, the amendments would require further search and consideration. Applicant's arguments have been reviewed. However the arguments address the claims as amended. Therefore the arguments are moot relative to the outstanding rejections.

Applicant is reminded of the revised amendment practice, 37 C.F.R. 1.121 which requires withdrawn claims be identified as (withdrawn) even if amended. .
